

I support RM-10352.

This will bring 160 meters into parity with other amateur radio service band plans and protect all narrow band, spectrum efficient modes from wide band interference.